PRAYER OF CONFESSION- (UNISON)

God of the future,

you are coming in power to bring all nations under your rule.

We confess that we have not expected your kingdom,

for we live casual lives, ignoring your promised judgment.

We accept lies as truth,

exploit neighbors,

abuse the earth,

and refuse your justice and peace.

In your mercy, forgive us.
Grant us wisdom to welcome your way,
and to seek things that will endure
when Christ comes to judge the world.

❖ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH- (Westminster Larger Confession of Faith, 7.281)

Q. 171. How are they that receive the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper to prepare themselves before they come unto it?

A. They that receive the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper are, before they come, to prepare themselves thereunto; by examining themselves, of their being in Christ, of their sins and wants; of the truth and measure of their knowledge, faith, repentance, love to God and the siblings, charity to all people, forgiving those that have done them wrong; of their desires after Christ, and of their new obedience; and by renewing the exercise of these graces, by serious meditation, and fervent prayer.

HYMN No. 552

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine, that the bread we break and the cup we bless may be the communion of the body and blood of Christ....

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, Almighty God, now and forever. Amen

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

SHARING THE BREAD AND CUP

Communion will be received in the pews today. There will be gluten-free bread in the center of the tray. The Deacons and Elders will bring the trays to your pew and pass it to you, first the bread and then the cup. Take the bread when it comes to you, pass the plate on, and partake of your bread when you are ready (this demonstrates how Christ comes to each of us individually). When the trays of glasses come to you, take a glass, pass on the tray, and hold the glass until all are served. Then all will drink together (this demonstrates the unity of the Church Universal).

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eternal God,
we give you thanks for this holy mystery
in which you have given yourself to us.
Grant that we may go into the world
in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Advent Devotional Booklets: All OPC households will receive a copy of God Lifts the Lowly, the PC-USA Advent devotional. This season's devotional focuses on the gifts that God has bestowed on each of his children. The beautiful illustrations and poems were created by Andrew Weatherly, a faithful Presbyterian with Down syndrome. The co-authors are both pastors with special needs family members. God Lifts the Lowly is provided as a ministry of the Worship and Music Committee. May this devotional be an Advent blessing to each of you. You will receive your booklet as you leave the sanctuary following worship.

Last Day for the Fair Trade Market! Be sure to stop by during Coffee Hour and cross off items from your shopping list. The Fair Trade Market will be open until 12:30 p.m.

Messiah Sing, 3 p.m. Don't miss this beloved tradition featuring Paul Fleckenstein, organist; Christopher Gage, conductor; and the Overbrook Quartet (Iris Fairfax, Molly McDonald, Toffer Mihalka, and Matthew Lulofs). This event is open to the public. There is no charge for admission, but a free will offering to benefit the music ministry at Overbrook is greatly appreciated.

Friday, December 7

RPM Café, 11:30 a.m. Although the snowy bluster of November kept us from meeting, we're ready to thaw the soup and try again! The R.P.M. (retired person's ministry) Café will be open for business, and our business is good-humored fellowship, shared learning, and fine food! B.Y.O. sandwich or salad... the Café will be offering a choice of soups (chicken corn noodle or country ham and bean), homemade desserts, and beverages. Our featured program will be "The Impact of Gratitude on Health and Well-being." The RPM Café is a ministry of the Congregational Life committee; there is no cost to attend. Advance registrations are appreciated. Please sign-up in the Wistar Morris Room following Worship, or RSVP to Sharon Parker (sparker614@gmail.com).

Sunday, December 9

Sunday Worship, 10:30 a.m. Join us next Sunday to hear the Word from Malachi 3:1-4 and Luke 3:1-6. The sermon title is "Construction Ahead."

Looking Ahead: Advent and Christmas at OPC

Friday, December 21

Service of the Longest Night, 7:00 p.m. The excitement of the holidays can also bring challenges for each of us; the stresses and strains of preparation and celebrations can take their toll. Many people find that they have trouble feeling “in the spirit” because of the loss of a loved one, illness, an unsettling workplace environment, marital discord, or lingering sadness. Recognizing the emotional unevenness of the holidays, we will continue the practice of gathering in worship for The Service of the Longest Night. The service is so named because of its occurrence on the winter solstice, the longest night of the year. At this time of darkness, we will gather in worship, asking God’s blessing on our lives and seeking His loving guidance in our lives. May peace be a gift to all.

Saturday, December 22

Hanging of the Greens, 10:00 a.m.-1 p.m. All are welcome to participate in this annual event and help decorate the Sanctuary for Christmas! We’ll be making window sill decorations, pew swags, hanging festive garlands, and decorations for the Sanctuary Christmas tree. There will be special craft activities for children in the Chapel, and they will be invited to decorate the tree in the Wistar Morris Room. A chilly day will call for a chili lunch... and warm fellowship for all who participate. For those who would like to continue the festivities, Simpson House welcomes us to come caroling at 1:30 PM. Please sign up in the Wistar Morris Room.

Monday, December 24

Christmas Eve Family Service, Dinner, and Gingerbread House Decorating, 5:00 p.m. This evening is a longtime OPC tradition. After the service, we will serve a simple supper of sandwiches, soup, veggie sticks, and cookies—giving the cooks in your home a much-needed break from the hectic holiday schedule (a free-will offering will be collected). Gingerbread houses will be ready for decorating at 7:00 p.m. A sign-up sheet will be available online and during coffee hour for donations of cookies, soup, veggie tray, set-up and clean-up. Grown OPC “children” come back year after year for the gingerbread house decorating. Any families interested in the Gingerbread House Decorating, please email office@overbrookpresb.org or call the church office (215-877-2744) to reserve a house. Everyone is welcome.

Christmas Eve Candlelight Service, 9:00 p.m. This traditional service presents lessons and carols to celebrate the birth of Christ. The Overbrook Quartet, along with organist Christopher Gage, will present a half-hour of Christmas preludes beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Sermon Notes

Westminster Confession 6.182: Of the Last Judgment

As Christ would have us to be certainly persuaded that there shall be a day of judgment, both to deter all humanity from sin, and for the greater consolation of the godly in their adversity; so will he have that day unknown to men, that they may shake off all carnal security, and be always watchful, because they know not at what hour the Lord will come; and may be ever prepared to say, Come Lord Jesus, come quickly. Amen.
