NEWS FROM THE CROSSROADS

From the Pastor

Seth Godin tells a story about a time when the Air Force faced a challenge. In the 1950s, airplane crashes were on the rise—many of them preventable. Gilbert Daniels was assigned to investigate whether something in the plane’s design was contributing to these accidents. What he discovered was surprising: the cockpit seats no longer fit the size of the pilots.

Over the course of thirty years, the average size of Air Force pilots had changed. To address the issue, Daniels measured hundreds of pilots using seventeen key physical metrics and calculated an average to redesign the cockpit. But when it came time to fit pilots into the new average cockpit, fewer than 3% actually matched the “average” size. In trying to fit everyone, the result was that no one really fit.

Since the fire, our church has continued to attract visitors. At first, this surprised me. We felt fragile, still nursing a deep wound. We were in a new space where it didn’t feel like we fit. I remain deeply grateful for the hospitality of Penn Wynne Presbyterian Church—their generosity has been a steady blessing. And yet, it has been a challenge to be guests week after week. I worried that visitors would sense our struggle and turn away. I feared that our pain would be off-putting.

But I’ve come to understand something else entirely: the pain and struggle haven’t been deterrents—they’ve been the draw.

Too often, churches—often in a sincere pursuit of excellence—send an unintended message that people must have it all together to belong. There’s an unspoken assumption that one must be shaped a certain way to fit the community. But this season of displacement has taught us something powerful: fitting in is not a prerequisite for belonging. When people walk through our doors, what they need to hear is this—you are welcome here, just as you are. You’re not being asked to fit a mold or meet a standard. You’re being invited into community, into grace.

This is our gospel message to everyone who enters our church: You belong here. Not because you fit our categories, but because you are the beloved of God.

From the Director of Music

Save the date! One of the lessons of the past year and a half has been the importance of collaboration, not only among ourselves at Overbrook but also with other churches and organizations in the area. Therefore, I am pleased to announce that the choirs and directors of Overbrook Presbyterian, Ardmore Presbyterian, and St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran are combining forces to celebrate the Holy Trinity:

Hymn and Anthem Festival featuring choirs, brass, organ, and piano
Sunday, May 18, 3:00 PM

We will present a wide variety of music, including a couple of anthems that the Overbrook Choir has sung this season, such as the Nunc Dimittis by Zanaida Stewart Robles and Christ, the Solid Rock by Clayton White. You can also look forward to pieces by Mack Wilberg, Ralph Vaughan Williams, and Moses Hogan.

If you are interested in singing with us for this festival, please don't hesitate to contact me (music@overbrookpresb.org), and we will make sure that anyone who wants to participate has the opportunity to do so.

Thank You!

Dear Overbrook Presbyterian Church,

On behalf of the Norristown Hospitality Center, I want to express our deepest gratitude for your generous in-kind donation. Your kindness and compassion are truly appreciated and will make a significant difference in the lives of those we serve.

Your contribution directly supports our mission to provide essential services and compassionate care to individuals experiencing homelessness and poverty in the Norristown community. These donations are vital in helping us maintain our daily operations and continue offering crucial resources, including:

- Warm Meals: donations of food items and paper products help us provide nourishing breakfasts, lunches, snacks, and Code Blue meals to individuals who may otherwise go hungry.
- Essential Supplies: We are able to offer access to hygiene products, emergency clothing, and other necessities that promote dignity and well-being.

The Norristown Hospitality Center relies on the generosity of individuals like you to sustain our vital work. Your support allows us to continue to be a place of hope for those facing hardship, offering not just practical assistance but also a sense of community and belonging.

We are truly grateful for your partnership in our mission to alleviate suffering and empower individuals to rebuild their lives. Thank you for your commitment to making a positive impact on our community.

With sincere appreciation,
Matt Kirsch

Children & Family Ministry

Contemplative Prayer Dinner for Families

Tuesday, April 1, 5:30–7:00 PM. Lower Level of OPC.

Caregivers and families are warmly invited to an evening of connection, quiet, and care.

We'll begin by gathering as a multigenerational community at 5:30 PM for a simple meal shared around the table. Everyone is welcome—children, caregivers, and friends—as we enjoy time together in community.

At 6:00 PM, we'll gently transition. Children will join Deja Stokes, our regular nursery staff member, for crafts and playtime, while adults are invited into a time of contemplative prayer. This space offers a quiet invitation to rest in God's presence through silence, Centering Prayer, and spiritual poetry. Whether you're exploring contemplative prayer for the first time or returning to a familiar rhythm, you are welcome.

Prayer will conclude at 6:45 PM, followed by a brief cleanup and departure by 7:00 PM.

Come as you are. Let us eat, pray, and rest—together. If you're able to contribute soup, bread, or compostable dishware (plates, bowls, utensils, napkins), your generosity would be appreciated. Please reach out to Anthony Carrella or Molly Burke (cfm@overbrookpresb.org) to sign up.

First Sunday Donuts for 9–11 Year Olds

Begins Sunday, April 6, 11:15–11:45 AM. Lower Level of Penn Wynne.

We're launching a new monthly rhythm for our older elementary students—a time for fellowship, creativity, and contemplative practice, just before Communion.

This month's gathering will be hosted by Molly and Anthony and will feature games, crafts, and a quiet prayerful activity: Creating Blackout Poems—a gentle, poetic introduction to spiritual reflection and creative voice. This new offering is also a soft preparation for Youth Group. Spread the word!

April Sunday School Schedule

Palm Sunday and Easter liturgies are designed to be experienced together as a full church family. In light of this, Children's Sunday School will pause for the first part of April to allow children, caregivers, and our volunteers to fully engage the beauty of Holy Week liturgies.

In the meantime, the Prayerground will remain open and well supported, with thoughtful tools to deepen children's participation in worship. Additionally, our nursery will remain open and staffed for children who would prefer spending time outside of the Sanctuary.

Children's Sunday School will resume on April 27, running through May, with our final Spring session scheduled for June 8.

Welcoming New Families

We are overjoyed to welcome several new families into the life of our church. Many of you have already found your way to the Ministry Participation Form—thank you!

If you are a caregiver of a child 11 or younger and have not yet completed the form, we kindly ask you to do so. It takes just five minutes and helps us provide safe, accessible, and enriching ministry for all. Visit: tinyurl.com/RegisterKids-OPC. Printed forms are also available during Sunday School pickup. Need help? Contact Anthony: anthony@overbrookpresb.org

Easter Morning Volunteers Needed

Sunday, April 20. Temple Beth Hillel–Beth El

- Greeter Team (9:45–10:30 AM)

If you're able to serve, please contact Anthony and Molly: cfm@overbrookpresb.org. Your presence helps make the day joyful and welcoming for all.

Welcome, Faith!

Please join us in giving thanks for Faith Eastling, who has graciously accepted a role on the Children and Family Ministry Committee. Faith is a gifted educator and seamstress, and she and her family have been part of the Overbrook community for about a year and a half.

After contributing her talents as a VBS craft leader last fall, Faith discerned a call to deepen her involvement. We're blessed by her presence and look forward to her leadership.
