A Warm Welcome to our Friends from Har Zion Temple!

In a world that is beset with division and enmity, OPC remains committed to creating opportunities for connection and friendship. As a church that seeks to be transformed and to transform the world, it is vital that we pursue the types of transformative relationships that will aid in that goal. By being both guest and host, we grow closer in mutual care and love. By making room for our neighbor, we make room for God. By showing up as a neighbor, we show up bearing God's love.

To this end, we are so grateful to announce that On Sunday, November 6, OPC will welcome Rabbi Seth Haaz and members of the Har Zion Temple community to be with us in worship. Seth will provide the word for us as we build this important relationship with our Jewish neighbors. The following Saturday, November 12, the OPC community is invited to attend the 10:30AM Shabbat services at Har Zion where Pastor Adam will provide the sermon—a good old fashioned preacher swap!

After Shabbat Services on Saturday, November 12, a light luncheon will be offered at Har Zion. Following lunch, Pastor Adam will lead Bible study for all who wish to stay. All OPC members and friends who plan to attend the November 12 Shabbat services and luncheon are asked to RSVP to Lisa (manager@overbrookpresb.org) by Monday, November 10.

How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity. Psalm 133.1

Introducing Rabbi Seth Haaz

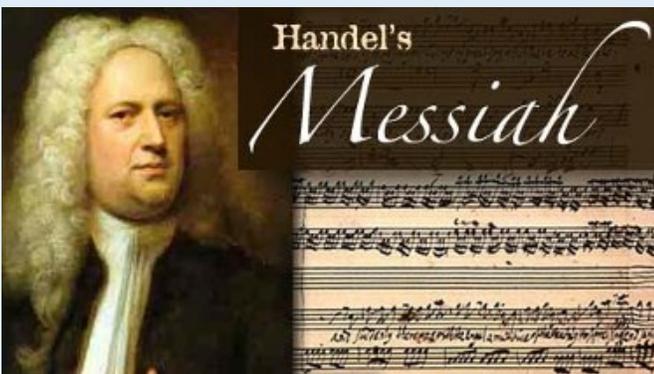

Since joining Har Zion Temple as its Rabbi in 2018, Seth Haaz has brought new life, innovation, and vitality to this important main-line Jewish community. Upon his arrival Rabbi Haaz has reimaged High Holy Day services, redesigned the delivery of religious school education, and rewrote the B'nei Mitzvah experience. Rabbi Haaz is also an emerging leader in Black-Jewish Clergy Bible Study on both local and national levels. Trained at the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York, Rabbi Haas is committed to meeting people where they are in their Jewish practice and helping them develop comfort and vocabulary to discuss God, spirituality, and the miracles and mysteries of life. Through compassionate, skilled listening and reflection, he encourages and inspires others to discover who they are and live in alignment with their core values. Rabbi Haaz teaches and champions that every person is capable of learning, meaningful prayer, and significant impact. He brings unique creativity to re-envision ritual and prayer experiences to meet the needs of contemporary Jews and cultivate a heightened awareness of and thankfulness for each moment of our shared existence.

Let us lift our voices in worship and praise, and extend our hands in fellowship on November 6 and November 12.

Worship and Music

Welcome to November at Overbrook. This month begins with a celebration of All Saints Sunday on November 6, and it ends with the start of Advent on November 27.

Advent worship is always special, and this year will be no different. Each Sunday we will light the Advent Candle during worship. Chris Gage will conduct the congregation and our quartet will sing the arias as we once again sing Messiah at 3:00 on December 4. On December 11 we will decorate the sanctuary as an act of worship in the Greening of the Church. Christmas Eve will bring worship services at 5:00 and 8:00, and we will worship on Christmas morning, December 25. Plan to be with us as we celebrate this joyous season which culminates in the birth of the Christ child.

28th Annual Messiah Sing
at Overbrook Presbyterian Church
Sunday, December 4, 2022, 3:00 p.m.

From the Director of Music

A beloved Advent tradition continues at Overbrook Presbyterian Church: the annual Messiah Sing, now in its 28th year. Members of the professional Overbrook Quartet sing recitatives and arias from Messiah, while members of the audience—this means you!—sing the choruses of G. F. Handel's masterpiece. This event will take place on Sunday, December 4, at 3:00 p.m. A free-will offering will be taken, with proceeds to benefit the music program at Overbrook, and a reception will follow.

No music? No problem—scores will be available for rent. Don't want to sing? That's okay—just come and enjoy the music. I hope to see you there!

-Christopher Gage

Youth Ministry

Youth Fellowship

On the first Sunday of every month, the youth are invited to a time of food, fellowship and learning after the worship service. This month's youth fellowship is on Sunday, November 6, in Adam's office at noon. Tom Lank will be leading the youth fellowship with a presentation on immigration and life of faith.

Youth Sunday School

On the 2nd-4th Sundays, the youth in Grades 6-12 will have their own Sunday School time for learning and formation. Arriving initially at 10:30 for the worship service, the youth will leave after the sermon for a time of

Mission Opportunity

The next youth mission event is on Sunday, November 13, where the youth of OPC will once again go into the streets of Kensington and have a chance to give food to the less fortunate people in Kensington.

A Season of - Beautiful Creations!

This past October, OPC children and families celebrated the Season of Creation. Learners used their senses to deepen their awareness of God's identity and work in the Oceans, Fauna, Storms, and Cosmos. Children enthusiastically engaged with each weekly theme, forming brilliant connections between their own experiences in the created world and the scriptures explored together. Kids and adults mirrored God's creativity each week by making numerous products of their own — Take a look at the stunning highlights below! Our Seasons of the Spirit curriculum offers adults a wonderful idea; "Our gift to children is the assurance that the whole vast universe is part of God's creation and that God is present at all times and in all places. Kids can look up to the beauty of the twinkling stars and know that God's love is all around them, just like the night sky". CFM invites you to pray for our OPC children that, as their awareness expands and their imaginations begin to take flight, they will continue to wonder and marvel at God's wondrous love.

Children's Sunday School in November

Sunday School meets on November 13th, 20th, and 27th. Following the Biblical Storytelling in worship, learners ages 3-11 are escorted to the Fellowship Hall, where they first sing and build an altar table. Later, children are invited into age-specific classrooms tailored to their spiritual and developmental needs. Finally, classes come together in the Fellowship Hall for a closing prayer ceremony before being dismissed at 11:45. Caregivers are asked to pick up children from the Hall each week.

Saturday, Nov. 19th Bread and Soup Making at 10:00 AM

Children and Families are gathering in the OPC kitchens on 11/19 from 10:00-11:45 AM to make delicious banana bread and hearty soup for newcomers to Overbrook. Participants will enjoy samples of the foods while creating welcome cards. Contact Davorka or Anthony if your family might like to attend!

Mission and Outreach

The Mission and Outreach committee has been extremely busy this fall and promises to be throughout the year.

On September 30, Liz Shah graciously hosted over 30 guests for the Women's Dining Circle. We were privileged to hear from Lauren Tedesco and Chelsea Switzer from the Mazzone Center, who provides a wide range of services and drop-in groups which aim to empower the LGBTQ community. We raised close to $1000 which is to be matched, as always, by the M&O budget.

In September, we began the process of restoring the Samuel Gompers Philadelphia public school library through WePac. Every Tuesday at 3:00 an industrious group of volunteers dusts, alphabetizes, shelves and catalogs library books that were housed elsewhere during Covid. You are invited to come join the fun every Tuesday afternoon.

Thanks to a very generous congregation we were able to supply much needed school supplies to James Rhoads and Gloria Casarez public schools. A special shout-out to Raelyn Harmon for scads of hand sanitizer!!

Ongoing projects include:

Every 3rd Monday "breakfast" is delivered to the Norristown Hospitality Center. Many thanks to Ann Elise and Earl Lindgren for embracing this project. Our next delivery is November 21. Please consider donating one or more of the items for this pre-Thanksgiving meal. <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/70a044aacaf2aaa8-breakfast>

Behind the scenes Nancy Gilhool has been preparing meals for the 30+ residents of the Eastern Life Center of Delaware County every 5th Tuesday of a month. The next opportunity to serve is Tuesday, November 29th. Can you stir a pot? Make a salad? Help with delivery? Then, you are the person we need!

At 1:00 every 1st Saturday of the month, a faithful cadre becomes pickers and packers at Books Through Bars at 4722 Baltimore Avenue. Our job there is to fulfill requests for books from those imprisoned in a six state area. When we were there in October we worked on requests from March. The need for volunteers is great; fulfilling requests, writing packing slips and wrapping books to be shipped are the tasks to be completed. It is easy and good work. Next opportunity is Saturday, November 5th.

Upcoming projects:

The annual Overbrook Fair Trade Market will be held at church on December 10 and 11. Fair trade is an arrangement designed to help producers in growing countries achieve sustainable and equitable trade relationships. We are looking for volunteers to help set-up, price items, cashier and clean up. We also need folks to start or complete their holiday shopping.

As a committee we are entrusted with investing your contributions in the best manner possible. Mission and Outreach meets every 4th Sunday after worship in the Williamson Room. Please consider joining this hard-working committee.

If you have questions about the projects or how you can become involved, contact Jeff Bowker (bowkerjeffrey@gmail.com) Janet Bowker (jabowker1001@gmail.com) or any member of the Mission and Outreach committee.

A thank you:

*Dear OPC Mission & Outreach Committee and Pastor Adam,
Thank you so much for your extremely generous support of me and the YAV program!! I am extremely grateful!! I hope to see some of you when I am home for the holidays.*

All the best, Caroline (Kothari)

A Call for Peacemakers: Faith in Action

The Presbyterian Church (USA) invites us to partner with the servant community of peacemakers and global mission workers. As a former mission worker in Myanmar and Papua New Guinea, I have personally witnessed the blessings of these partnerships. Each of us can become a partner in ministry, whether through prayer, financial support, outreach to mission workers, and/or through discernment of our personal capacity to serve in mission. To learn more about the work of the PC-USA global mission workers and peacemakers, please consider exploring the following resources:

Presbyterian Peace Fellowship: (www.presbypeacefellowship.org) " A wide network of peacemakers who engage with issues in the US and internationally, our call is to be movers and shakers within the PC(USA) and beyond, encouraging one another to take seriously God's call to God's people to participate in God's nonviolent work of love, peace, and justice in the world. At present, our actions are focused on: Ending Gun Violence in the United States; Accompanying partners in the work for peace in Columbia and along the US-Mexican border; Mobilizing for climate justice; Working to support peace in Palestine and Israel."

Presbyterian Peacemaking Program: Travel Seminars (www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/peacemaking/travel_study/) The PC-USA sponsors travel study seminars to different parts of the world to provide Presbyterians with the opportunity to learn first hand from our mission partners about efforts for peace, justice and reconciliation in contexts of conflict, injustice, and oppression. Travel seminars for 2023 include the following: Philippines and Hong Kong, February 3-17 Root Causes and Current Challenges of Forced Migration and Labor Trafficking; Puerto Rico March 13-20 The Political, Social and Racial Dynamics Revealed by Multiple Catastrophes and How the Church is Responding to Them; American Southwest: Journey from Albuquerque, New Mexico to Phoenix, Arizona April 28-May 7 The Doctrine of Discovery and Its Legacy Today.

Please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss these opportunities in mission and peacemaking.

*May this be a season of discernment for us all,
Sharon Parker*

Update-Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC)

The APNC committee have truncated the long list of potential candidates to a more defined list of candidates. The committee is in the process of preparing questions and procedures for these candidates during Phase 1 of the interview process. They are also in the process of widening the search for potential candidates by listing the Associate Pastor job descriptions on selected Presbyterian websites within the Tri-State area.

The committee is co-chaired by Herb Brabham and Bob Kothari. The other members include Margaret Paschal (secretary), Cheryl Davis, Hannah Lazo, Kadie Whalen, and Zubin Fiorillo. If there are any questions or feedback, please do not hesitate to reach out to any member of the committee.

Many thanks again to all members of the APNC for their dedication and devotion to this process as we call our Associate Pastor.

It's Time for the OPC Turkey Trot!

Parish Care invites you to participate in this year's OPC Turkey Trot. The Turkey Trot provides Thanksgiving meals for families in need. Please consider "trotting" in one of the following ways: redeem your grocery points and contribute a 12-15 pound turkey; help shop for supplementary groceries; prepare homemade baked goods to include with the meal; be a "turkey trotter" and deliver a family meal. Deliveries will be made following worship on November 20. If you know of a family who would welcome a Thanksgiving meal delivery, or if you'd like to participate in this year's Turkey Trot, please contact Sharon Parker (sharon@overbrookpresb.org).

A New Year Gift for All

On November 27, Overbrook will celebrate the first Sunday in Advent and mark the beginning of a new liturgical year. Throughout Christianity, the season of Advent is a time of preparation, of watching and waiting for the birth of our Savior. It is also a time of holy awe, and an opportunity for spiritual discovery. Prior to November 27, each OPC household will receive a special "new year" gift, the daily devotional Attending to Advent: poetry, prose, and prayer. Published by Presbyterian Outlook, Attending to Advent will be accessible on-line or provided in a print version for those who do not have computer access. Further information regarding the distribution of the devotional will be provided through Realm and during the worship announcements. Together, may we prayerfully celebrate the Season of Advent

Women's Prayer Group

An opportunity for shared conversation, spiritual support, good humor, and group prayer is offered Tuesday mornings at 7:30 A.M. on Zoom (<https://bit.ly/3yxD2F4>). You are warmly invited to start each Tuesday with a group of women for whom "Amen" is not an ending but a hopeful beginning. Regardless of whether your schedule allows you to participate, please consider us to be your prayer partners. As we do each Sunday morning during worship, all who gather on Tuesday will pray with and for you. We encourage you to send us your prayer requests, and each will be faithfully and confidentiality lifted in prayer. You are invited to share your prayer requests with Sharon Parker (sharon@overbrookpresb.org) (H: 215-309-5388).

Parish Care: Pathways of Faith

Have you ever found yourself wondering about God's plan for your life, or listening for the encouragement and guidance of the Holy Spirit? If so, I invite you to join me in exploring God's path through prayer partnering.

Prayer partnering is compassionate listening and prayer offered freely by and confidentially between God's children. It is the asking and answering of questions of faith; it is the journey of discovering God's invitation in one's life. As Parish Care Associate, and as a fellow congregant, I invite you to join me for shared listening and prayer, and for the realization of God's will.

During the week, I will be at church on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9:00 AM- 1:30 PM. I am also available for home visits, and am happy to schedule evening zoom conversations at your convenience. It would be a joy to share time with you. Please feel free to contact me to reserve time for shared conversation and prayer. (sharon@overbrookpresb.org) (home: 215-309-5388)

*Blessings to all,
Sharon Parker*
